

A high definition band

A funky and soulful music experience of sounds from the past and present

96k is a cover band with members that have each performed with local and international artists for over 20 years. They often collaborate with other musicians, playing different genres of music for various shows. Whether an intimate gathering or a large festival, there is no standard performance as every audience is different and every event is special. This is why 96k brings a sound that is defined, and the band's energy promises a memorable experience.
